

The marker list- expanded view- page allows a user to click on a marker from within the marker list to get more information, view on a map, or get directions. A user can click on the list button on the bottom to go back to marker list or the map button on the bottom to return to the home page

The user can search for another marker from this page

The user can filter markers by nearby, wishlist, and my markers

The list icon takes a user back to the marker list

The map icon takes a user back to the home page